

Camelot restaurant

Dear guests, let me apologize for some noise in restaurant. We are making changes to bring you higher quality and more space in Pilsner Urquell restaurant upstairs, where you will find not pasteurized Pilsner Urquell beer draft from tanks and original czech cuisine.

We would like you present new headchef – Master chef Martin Martančík – best chef in Czech republic in 2003. That's why this menu is completely new, not finished and made in paperback. Good news are that we don't use any microwave, any polotovary and E250.
